Pvt. Hajime Yoshizawa, who graduated from Petaluma high school with the class of 1935, is serving in the infantry somewhere in Italy and recently wrote the Argus-Courier a letter in which he asks to be remembered to all his Petaluma friends, especially his classmates and teachers. Hajime hopes that through the paper he may be able to get in touch with his friends, particularly those of the January class of 1935. He says he often recalls the days when he used to live in Petaluma.

"I have had a number of experiences during the removal of those of Japanese ancestry from the Pacific coast and am glad to say that despite the hardships I've gained in knowledge what is attained only through experience."
